Minutes

Present: Amy Jurrens, Doug Rodger, Greta Giese, John Hartog, Kristi Landis, Kristin Kollbaum, Laura Nachtigal, Nicole Steele

Absent: James Gaard, Jan Snyder, Lee VanKley, Ryan Steffen, Troy Klein

Call to Order (JH3)

- John called the meeting to order at 3:30 p.m.

Approval of Minutes (JH3)

- The minutes were approved by mutual consent.

New Business:

1. Dates for D.O.T. in 2017.
    a. There was much discussion on possible dates. Consensus was to have John ask for Alethea's approval of September 25-29, 2017. [These dates have been approved by Alethea].
2. New residence hall dedication.
    a. It would be good publicity to have this ribbon cutting held in conjunction with Days of Thunder. [This has been approved by Alethea].
3. The "big idea" for the week.
    a. Consensus was to focus on video/computer gaming. [This has been approved by Alethea].
4. Additional ideas from surveys?
    a. Survey results were discussed.
5. Committee leadership and make-up.
    a. John indicated that since the focus of the Days of Thunder is shifting more towards student activities it is fitting to have Nicole Steele lead this committee.
    b. We will also have a faculty lead person, Troy Klein, and subcommittees for individual events of the week.
    c. The student representative needs to be replaced.
    d. We may meet one more time before the end of the spring semester.
6. Moving forward.
    a. Laura will give the file history to Nicole.
    b. The funding stream will remain the same.
    c. Days of Thunder is meant to be a fun and memorable time for students.
7. Adjournment
    a. The meeting adjourned at 4:03 p.m.

Task List

- John will get Alethea's approval on the dates, ribbon cutting, and "big idea".
    - This is completed and approved.
- Laura will provide Nicole with the files from previous Days of Thunder.
