

Weekly Update: August 11-17, 2019

Greetings!

Weekly Updates:

- The annual Executive Council Advance took place on Tuesday, August 13, in O'Brien Hall. The morning guest speakers were Dan and Melissa Lutat who spoke about Positive Mental Attitude (PMA). The afternoon was comprised of brainstorming and strategizing for the new academic year along with a tour of the new Welding Lab.
- ALICE safety training drills were held on Thursday, August 15. #serve
- On Friday, August 16, NCC kicked off the start of the academic year with the annual Back to School Breakfast and All-College Meeting. Thanks to Executive Council and Hy-Vee staff for serving a scrumptious breakfast. John Hartog welcomed everyone back to campus and provided encouragement as we set forth into the coming school year. #serve (See attachment for photo.)
- This weekend students moved into their "home away from home" (residence halls), and various Student Services, Business Office, and College Store staff were here to serve them! Excellent customer service! #serve
- The remodel of Building D continues to move forward. HVAC ducts are going in, and the north wall is almost completely blocked in. Block work on the classrooms will start next week. All of the shop floors have been poured in the automotive area. Plumbers have started to hang airlines, and electricians are running over head conduits. The floors in the new engine room, the old Automotive shop farthest to the east, will start coming out next week. (See attachment for pictures.)
- The next session of the NCC iLead (intentional Leadership Experience and Development) Book Club will be starting early September and running through the end of November. This fall's book is Creativity, Inc. iLead will meet on Wednesdays from 2:30-3:00 p.m. NCC will provide a copy of the book for anyone who wants to participate. Attendance to every Wednesday discussion is not required, but attempting to make it to as many as possible is preferred. The average reading for a week will be approximately 25 pages per week. If you are interested in participating, please contact Kristi Landis before August 26.

- The NCC Thunder Sports Shooting Team will have a mandatory pre-season meeting in A122 on Thursday, August 22, at 3:30 p.m. Practices begin Tuesday, August 27. Questions about our team?
