

Weekly Update: July 1-6, 2019

Greetings!

The Independence Day holiday on Thursday (July 4) signals two more weeks of summer term for students! Commencement ceremonies will be Friday, July 19, at 1:30 p.m. 2019 Alumnus of the Year David Taylor will be honored. David graduated from Industrial and Commercial Wiring in 2000 and is currently the Director of Planning and Prefab at Interstates in Sioux Center where he has been employed since 2007. According to LinkedIn, his current position at Interstates involves managing a group of approximately 30 planners and prefab technicians. He is responsible for overall scope, budget, schedule and cost management of pre-construction and prefabrication activities, and primary coordination between Project Management, Site Personnel, and Prefabrication groups.

David's success is our story! Learn more about David's story and celebrate ALL our graduates' achievements at Summer Commencement!
